

Catarrh

May affect any portion of the body where the mucous membrane is found. But catarrh of the head is by far the most common, and the most liable to be neglected. It cannot be cured by local applications. Being a constitutional disease it requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, working through the blood, eradicates the impurity which causes and promotes the catarrh, and soon effects a permanent cure. The same time Hood's Sarsaparilla builds up the whole system, and makes the feel renewed in strength and health. If you suffer from catarrh, be sure to try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Impure Blood
"I used Hood's Sarsaparilla for catarrh, and received great relief and benefit from it. The catarrh was very disagreeable, especially in the winter, causing constant discharge from my nose, ringing noises in my ears, and pains in the back of my head. The effort to clear my head in the morning by hawking and spitting was painful. Hood's Sarsaparilla gave me relief immediately, while in time I was cured. I am never without the medicine in my house as I think it is worth its weight in gold."
Mrs. G. B. GIBB, 1029 Eighth St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
"I was troubled with that annoying disease, nasal catarrh, and never found relief till I took Hood's Sarsaparilla." J. L. ROYER, Marksburg, Ky.

IN COURT CIRCLES.

The Carrigan Suit Before Judge Sandford.

POLICE AND PROBATE COURTS.

Arrested at the Fort—In the First District—Young Thieves to be Tried To-day.

The first business to come before Judge Sandford yesterday, was the case of the United States vs. Charles Hanks et al. The complaint alleged that the defendants had unlawfully cut timber on the public lands, and placed the damages at $3,400. The prosecution was represented by Mr. Clarke and the defense by M. M. Kaighn. The jury returned a verdict of no cause of action.

The case of James W. Carrigan vs. R. G. McNiece and others is now on trial. The "others" in the case are the directors of the Mt. Olivet Cemetery. It appears from the testimony that Carrigan owned a lot in the cemetery, on which, being out of the city, he had allowed the taxes to lapse. On his return, he discovered that the body of his child, whom he had buried there, had been disinterred and removed to Potter's Field, or somewhere else. For this, he brings a suit for $5,000 damages.

ARRESTED AT THE FORT.

Deputy Franks yesterday arrested at Fort Douglass a woman who gave her name as Mary Christiansen. It is claimed that she is wanted as a witness in the case of the United States vs. George Ostler, of Provo. Something over a year ago, she went from Provo to the Fort, where she was employed as a domestic in the family of one of the officers. About six months ago she married a soldier.

The First District.

At Provo yesterday, the following business was transacted:

Albert Uebel vs. D. L. Dana; continued for the term on motion of the plaintiff.

W. L. McCormick vs. Gibson & McDonald; trial by the court; taken under advisement.

In Police Circles.

There was no session of the Police Court yesterday, owing to the failure of the criminal market to supply the necessary material. The police, however, brought in a fresh supply of fodder and the mills of Justice Pyper will grind as usual to-day.

On Monday night a little green grocery store on First South Street, directly opposite the Theatre, was broken into and two packages of cigarettes and some candy were taken. The police have been on the lookout for the culprits ever since, and the result was that yesterday two small boys, Fred Tremayne and Oloof Nyström were taken in on the charge of petit larceny, and a little later Charles O'Connor, another boy brigand was captured. There is still one more lad, older and larger than the others, that the police are after, and if he is caught in time they will all be given a hearing to-day.

She was in the last stages of consumption, told by physicians that she was incurable and could live only a short time; she weighed less than seventy pounds. Said committee is requested to invite the co-operation of other counties.

Brulers at Work.

NEW YORK, November 15.—The long-talked-about s.x round glove contest between Jack Dempsey, middle weight champion, and Professor Mike Donovan of the New York Athletic Club, the ex-champion middle weight, took place at Palace Hall, Brooklyn, to-night. Contrary to the expectation of every one, Donovan set the ball rolling, landing on Dempsey's neck and head with his left. Dempsey returned on the stomach. Donovan followed with one on the ribs and stomach. Jack retaliated on the mouth with his left when Donovan missed him. The round closed with a beautiful stop by Donovan of a vicious blow from Dempsey's swinging right.

SECOND ROUND.

As they came up Donovan made a good stop and then went at Dempsey, chasing him about the ring. Dempsey sent hot ones on Donovan's stomach and neck, the professor coming back with a strong straight left in the face. With a vicious blow Dempsey found a resting place on Donovan's chest for his left as time was called.

THE THIRD ROUND.

The Favorite

Medicine for Throat and Lung Difficulties has long been, and still is, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It cures Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, and Asthma; soothes irritation of the Larynx and Fauces; strengthens the Vocal Organs; allays soreness of the Lungs; prevents Consumption, and even in advanced stages of that disease, relieves Coughing and induces Sleep. There is no other preparation for diseases of the throat and lungs to be compared with this remedy.

"My wife had a distressing cough, with pains in the side and breast. We tried various remedies, but none did her any good until I got a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which has cured her. A neighbor, Mrs. Glenn, had the measles, and the cough was relieved by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have no hesitation in recommending this to every one afflicted."—Robert Horton, Foreman Headlight, Morrilton, Ark.

Cough Medicine

"I have been afflicted with asthma for forty years. Last spring I was taken with a violent cough, which threatened to terminate my days. Every one pronounced me in consumption. I determined to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Its effects were magical. I was immediately relieved and continued to improve until entirely recovered."—Joel Bullard, Guilford, Conn.

"Six months ago I had a severe hemorrhage of the lungs, brought on by an incessant cough which deprived me of sleep and rest. I tried various remedies, but obtained no relief until I began to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. A few bottles of this medicine cured me."—Mrs. E. Coburn, 19 Second st., Lowell, Mass.

"For children afflicted with colds, coughs, sore throat, or croup, I do not know of any remedy which will give more speedy relief than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have found it, also, invaluable in cases of Whooping Cough."—Ann Lovejoy, 1237 Washington street, Boston, Mass.

on the jaw. Dempsey was short on his left and Donovan stopped another hard blow. Dempsey found Donovan's stomach twice and landed twice on his ribs. All the blows by each were clean and effective.

THE FOURTH

opened by the professor landing on the Nonpareil's stomach with his left. Dempsey returning with his right on his neck. Donovan then landed two blows on Dempsey's nose. Dempsey returning on his stomach. Donovan found Jack's ribs with his right and then landed one on Dempsey's neck, the nonpareil giving him one in the same place. Both were right hand swinging.

FIFTH ROUND.

The work that the men had done was very fast, but exceedingly scientific. Everyone was electrified by the exhibition of cleverness by both. Donovan landed on the ribs when a clinch followed, but the men separated without attempting any fighting. Dempsey sent a sinder on the neck with his right, and another clinch followed. Dempsey rushed at Donovan, who landed on his face but got one in the stomach for his pains. Donovan found Dempsey's neck with his left, just as time was called.

SIXTH AND LAST ROUND.

Both men came up slightly distressed, showing plainly the efforts of the work. Donovan found Dempsey's stomach with his left, when a clinch ensued. After the break Donovan landed on Dempsey's neck with his right and then sent the left out straight on Dempsey's nose. Donovan claimed first blood. Allowed. The balance of the round was fast and furious, both doing considerable swinging and both trying to land knock-out blows. Time was called and the contest ended. Referee O'Brien gave his decision, making it a draw, but in a canvass of over fifty men, with few exceptions, all declared that Donovan should have had the decision, and those who thought otherwise give Dempsey only a shade the preference on the ground that Dempsey's blows were the heaviest.
